

MESSENGER JULY 23, 2021

Grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!

This week I want to use this space in the Messenger to briefly introduce to you our guest preacher at the 9:20 service this Sunday. His name is Jason Dickerson, and he is the Methodist Pastor of the Silk Hope charge in Chatham County, North Carolina.

Jason and I became friends when we were a part of an accountability group for pastors in Chatham County, where I served at Goldston UMC before coming to Surf City. It was at one of those group meetings (probably my last one) that I informed Jason I was being moved to Surf City. He said, "You're kidding; Faith Harbor?" I came to find out that Jason's family has a beach house on the island, and they have been vacationing here for many years. In fact, whenever they are in Surf City, Jason and his family worship here at Faith Harbor.

Jason is here again this week and he offered to preach at the 9:20 service. He told me that he has always wanted to preach at Faith Harbor. I am glad to offer him that privilege! I will be here to lead the service, but will be happy to sit beside Kim while listening to Jason's message.

Jason will be preaching on John 5:1-17. The title of his message is, "Do you Want to be Well?" Those words were spoken by Jesus to a man who had been an invalid for 38 years. I am sure Jason will share an interesting take on this story with application to our lives today.

Also this Sunday, we will hear from our youth group about their adventures at Lake Junaluska this week. I am sure you won't want to miss it, and I hope to see many of you either in our Sanctuary or at the beach.

Peace and blessings,
Pastor David
