

Genesis 1.1-5: “In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, ‘Let there be light’; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.”

The beginning. The beginning is God – the end is God – and God is right in our midst. We are going to look at the overarching narrative of scripture over the next several months. And we will start with the beginning. It is a beginning that involves the heavens and the earth. It is a beginning that involves speech, light, and darkness. It is a beginning that involves time, space, evening, and morning. It is a beginning that involves the first day.

You can see the trajectory that we will be taking through this graphic. It starts with creation – then rebellion – then promise – then Christ – then mission – then judgment – and finally new creation.

You are invited on this journey of looking at the totality of scripture and what that overarching narrative means for us – in our space and time. Remember, this journey with the Lord is one that is beyond just us. It includes people from all over the world, but it also involves people that go all the way back to Adam & Eve – and all the way into the future with people that have not been born. We are part of a larger narrative, and we are a link in the chain that is to be strong for the people before us and after us. What I am trying to say is this is larger than us. So let us journey together through scripture, as we learn more about our Lord and his overarching story.

FROM THE FINANCE TEAM: By the Numbers - A Financial Update

Before I begin the four-part series on Church Finance Best Practices, it is important to understand that it all begins with stewardship. When you hear that word, your mind likely goes immediately to “give the church more money.” But biblical stewardship is so much more than that. Biblical stewardship is about trusting Jesus with our resources. Real stewardship in the Bible is about trusting Jesus with everything. It’s about managing what He’s placed in our hands, not only the money, but also time, energy, relationships, and influence. It’s about leaning into Jesus, not just funding ministry. Stewardship is all about the management of the resources entrusted to us by GOD. Dave Ramsey sums it up best:

“Stewardship is managing God’s blessings, God’s ways, for God’s glory...That means our time, talents, treasure, relationships, jobs, and yes, our stuff. It’s all God’s, and He trusts us with it.”

I want to be with this church because it gives generously with its finances. It gives not out of obligation, guilt, or shame, but by faith. I want my congregation to spend time talking to Jesus about their finances and asking Him how much (or how little) they are to donate. I want them to look to Jesus to give their time and talents by faith and as an act of worship. Biblical stewardship looks at the whole person and asks, how does Jesus want to work in and through them?

As we look into the financial future of Faith Harbor, I have one last thought that is part of the Policy and Procedures manual:

“Our ultimate security and hope for the future is not the size of our church bank account or financial outlook. It’s Jesus.” Joshua Gordon

Your brother in Christ,

Safer Sanctuaries: Training Leaders in Abuse Prevention

Center for Leadership Excellence
North Carolina Conference
THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

In partnership with the NC Conference
Safer Sanctuaries Team

About the Workshop:

Since 1996, when the General Conference of The United Methodist Church adopted a resolution aimed at eliminating potential for abuse in the church, abuse prevention has been an important part of church policy-making and implementation. United Methodists are called to justice and advocacy for those whose voices are often overlooked or not heard, including children, youth, and vulnerable adults. Churches are responsible for ensuring a safe environment for all persons. The risk of harm to children, youth, and vulnerable adults can be reduced through the implementation of abuse prevention policies.

A primary focus for the NCC Safer Sanctuaries Team is to provide resources that will help churches as they develop policies, train staff/volunteers, and implement those policies. Individual church policies should be written with consideration of the church's specific context, so there is not a one-size-fits-all policy. Recommendations for abuse prevention policy content is offered by the NCC Safer Sanctuaries Team and may be found on the webpage. This workshop is for church leaders who will train others in abuse prevention. Participants are encouraged to bring a copy of their church abuse prevention policy.

Safer Sanctuaries: Training Leaders in Abuse Prevention is led by Rev. Charlotte Brendel, current chair of the NCC Safer Sanctuaries Team.

Over the next 4 weeks, our children will be engaging in 4 "INCREDIBLE" stories of the Holy Spirit... allowing them to know that the Holy Spirit empowers them to be brave, kind, and transformative, just like the apostles of Jesus days.

Through 4 engaging stories from the Book of Acts, kids will learn how ordinary people, filled with the Holy Spirit, achieved incredible things for God's kingdom.

April 27th: Week 1: "What Got Into Them?" Peter and John, Speak Up! (Acts 4:1-22)

May 4th: Week 2: "What's Her Story?" Lydia's Conversion (Acts 16:11-15)

May 11th: Week 3: "Can Villains Change?" Saul's Conversion (Acts 9:1-19)

May 18th: Week 4: "Let's Get This Straight!" Priscilla, Aquila, & Apollos (Acts 18:24-28)

By the end of this series, our children will have a deeper understanding of how the Holy Spirit is at work in their lives, equipping them with the incredible power to overcome challenges, share God's love, and grow in their faith. Watch your kids be inspired and transformed, ready to impact their world, for the GOOD of the world!

I look forward to seeing all that God will do as we grow in our knowledge and love of Him, who was and is and is to come.
