

Mercy Abounds Program

The Mercy Abounds Program is an outreach ministry staffed by trained case advocates primarily to assist families or individuals for emergency needs that are considered to be non-recurring.

Applicants seeking assistance must reside within the defined service areas of Topsail Island, Surf City and Holly Ridge. Completion of a household budget is necessary before financial assistance may be provided. All information exchanged is considered confidential and protected accordingly.

Interview appointments may be scheduled by contacting the church office by phone (910) 328.4422 or email: faithharborumc.secretary@gmail.com.
